

Northamptonshire Natural History Society

Astronomy Section

The Astronomy Section of the Northamptonshire Natural History Society is the oldest and largest astronomical society representing amateur astronomers in the Northamptonshire region. We cater for all levels of astronomy from beginners to advanced amateurs. The section meets every second and last Monday at 7:30pm. at The Humfrey Rooms, 10 Castilian Terrace, Northampton. NN1 1LD.

Current Programme of Meetings and Events

July 23	Telescopic Topics	Informal meeting to discuss recent observations and astronomical events
August 13	Asteroids	Roger Dymock
September 10	Exo Planets	Dr. Carol Haswell
September 24	Gamma Rays	Dr. Liz Palmer
October 15	Planets and Life Beyond	Prof. Barry Jones
October 29	TBA	Dr. Megan Grey
November 12	Telescopic Topics	Informal meeting to discuss recent observations and astronomical events
November 26	Astro Imaging	Dusko Novakovic & Martin Taylor
December 10	TBA	Andy Lound
January 14	New Targets for Amateur Astronomers	Martin Nicholson
January 28	Telescopic Topics	Informal meeting to discuss recent observations and astronomical events
February 11	"Apollo" One small step	Andy Green
February 25	TBA	Ann Bonner